

Cancellation Policy

Classes- We kindly ask that you respect others, and give at least 2 days prior to cancelling a class. This way there is still time for another person to fill your spot. If you cancel abruptly more than 2x, we kindly ask that you pay for the class anyway, as the spot could have been taken. Thank you!

Private Sessions- Private sessions must be cancelled at least 2 days prior, to give others an opportunity to schedule a session. If you cancel abruptly more than 2x, you will be responsible to pay for half the cost of the session. Thank you!

Workshops- Due to the extensive preparation work for workshops (cost of materials, etc.), we ask that you cancel at least 1 week prior to the scheduled date. If you fail to do so, you will still be responsible to pay for the half the cost of the workshop.

Retreats- Retreats must be cancelled at least 1 month prior to the scheduled date. If you fail to meet this time frame, you will be charged for half the cost of the retreat price.

We understand that unexpected events in life come up and plans are destined to change. However, it shouldn't become a habit and we need to respect our own commitments, as well as others time and energy. We will always try to accommodate you to the best of our ability. Thank you for understanding!

Namaste!
